

Course Title:

The Science Behind Microneedling Treatments and How It Works

Course Description:

This course explores the fundamental science and practical applications of microneedling. It provides in-depth knowledge of skin anatomy, the wound-healing process, types of microneedling, device and needle configurations, and best practices for treatment safety and efficacy. Ideal for Aestheticians seeking to expand or refine their microneedling expertise.

---

Course Duration: 6 hours *4 hours theory *2 hours practical

Learning Objectives:

Upon successful completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- Describe the anatomy and physiology of the skin relevant to microneedling.
- Understand the phases of the inflammation cascade and their relevance to skin rejuvenation.
- Differentiate between cosmetic and medical microneedling, including regulatory boundaries.
- Identify appropriate devices, needle types, and treatment protocols.
- Perform client consultations and establish eligibility for treatment.
- Apply best practices for skin preparation, sanitation, and post-treatment care.

Cost: 500$

Participants: Current Licensed Aestheticians

Certificate of Attendance (evaluated by participating)