

Wink is looking to add talented Estheticians and Nail Technicians to Our Team!
Providing professional services in a Beautiful Spa Atmosphere located in the heart of Downtown Truro!

What you'll do:

Perform Top Quality Services, meeting our Client's Needs.

Once you take on your Client it is your opportunity to showcase your skills!

This includes; Manicures, Pedicures, Facials, Body Waxing and Tinting.

Clients will rely on you to help choose and educate them on services that suit them and their lifestyle while ensuring they are comfortable and properly informed.

Retain Clientele.

Building a client relationship with great conversation, meeting their expectation and holding an upbeat positive attitude will aid in building continuous bookings!

Contribute to the Team Atmosphere.

Team work makes the Dream Work!

Cleanliness is high priority – cleaning up after yourself and your team members when needed, lending a helping hand whenever you see a task needing done is what we are searching for!

Passionate and Knowledgeable.

By knowing and understanding the services and products we offer, this will build trust with your Clientele! They will appreciate your recommendations for future purchases and appointments.

Who you are:

Nailing it; You love staying on top of nail trends and letting your creativity flow allowing your passion to inspire you. You are precise, detailed and particular. You are able to be time efficient while providing precise professional services with a smile, working well within time restraints. Always knowing there is a team behind you to help and ensure you succeed!

OR

You have a passion for all Esthetic Services; You share an overall love for the industry and services you provide. Taking the variety in your schedule from one service to the next in stride! You want to be creative while being consistent and respecting the goal of Wink. You feel confident in knowing that you are supported by a Team that wants to help provide quality services and experiences to our Clients!

Emotionally Intelligent; In these roles you have the ability to work with different personalities and read the room to gauge your client(s). You are able to make them feel welcomed and relaxed through conversation or comfortable silence.

Appreciative of honest feedback; Knowing constructive criticism is to help you improve – not a personal attack. Able to own up to your mistakes and learn from them! We have an open door policy – we want to hear your feedback and ideas! You're able to work individually when needed or as a Team, wanting your Team Members to succeed too!

Have a flexible, open availability; Happy to work days and evenings. Willing to stay a few minutes late to ensure everything is cleaned, stocked and ready for the next day!

Why join Wink?

This is your opportunity to join an amazing supportive team of other like minded individuals who share the same passion as you in a well established Spa! With a busy clientele in a fast paced environment, we all want to see you succeed and will provide you the assistance to do so!
