Meet the Founder & Trainer

With over 17 years of experience in the beauty industry, she graduated with a degree in Somatology. Her graduate degree studies included some in-depth understanding into the human anatomy and physiology, science and chemistry as well as every aspect in the wellness industry such as reflexology, aromatherapy, reiki and so much more. Lurinda began her career as an aesthetician and then went on to become a spa manager and medical sales representative. She established herself in the aesthetics industry as a pioneer leader for advance technologies and clinical aesthetics.

A great highlight of her career is she worked with Dr. Des Fernandes and opened a Dermatology practice in Abha, Saudi Arabia and trained international doctors on laser machines and clinical aesthetics. Lurinda won three major International awards for the recognition of cosmetic development in science and brand creation. Lurinda has a huge passion for aesthetics and medical skincare. She immigrated to Nova Scotia from Cape town, South Africa in 2019. She had taken the role as lead clinical instructor and is serving on the clinical committee, and board member for the Cosmetology Association of Nova Scotia
