

Tori Yeomans Bio:

My name is Tori Yeomans (she/they), and I am honored to submit my candidacy for the Board of Directors at CANS. With experience as a Master Esthetician, local salon owner, and educator specializing in inclusive beauty practices, I offer a comprehensive understanding of industry dynamics and a commitment to fostering diversity and equity. My identity as a queer, Indigenous (Red River Métis), and neurodivergent individual, along with my background as a certified mental health counselor, provides a unique and valuable perspective. Additionally, my tenure on the Board of Directors for the Sackville Business Association has refined my skills in strategic advocacy and community engagement. I am dedicated to advancing CANS's mission by promoting inclusivity and driving impactful change within the organization and the broader community.
