

Full-Time Hair Stylist

Intrinsic Salon & Spa is a service provider owned and operated Aveda Salon in Truro Nova Scotia. We're looking to grow our team before we open our doors in October. We're taking over from an established Aveda® Salonspa where the successful candidate will join an established group of professionals. We're looking for a motivated, upbeat, and dedicated stylist to join this team and bring their energy to everything they do.

This is a full-time role 35+ hours per week. Commission payout and pricing levels to be negotiated based on your current clientele and expectations for growth.

What we're looking for:

You're a currently licensed Stylist with the Cosmetology Association of Nova Scotia.

You're awesome with people, and are keen on building your own book of clients.

You understand that success comes from building relationships, not one-off selling

You've got a thirst for knowledge and are looking to build your skills.

You're great working with your clients and working with the team around you.

You have a vigilant attitude towards sanitation and safety.

What's nice to have:

You have experience in a commission-based role.

You have knowledge of and ability to perform Aveda® services.

You have experience with relationship-based service models.

You have a large repertoire of styles to accommodate a diverse client base.

What we offer:

A competitive commission structure that rewards you for the work you put in and high retail commission from your first sale.

An opportunity to increase your client's loyalty by partnering with complementary service providers.

An environment where you are heard and respected, the owners here do what you do too!

To apply, drop in at 664 Prince Street, Truro with your resume. Contact Courtney at courtneywhiteland@hotmail.com or (902)449-7808.
